Second Nature

Liquid light moves through the acetate. Glossy, jewel-toned, and ice-cool — minimalism reimagined. Marble textures blend like silk, while every sheet of acetate speaks in perfect dialogue of color and material. Skin-friendly, weightless, and effortlessly chic.

POETRY

Gradient / Milky Monocolor

A leap into a modern dimension where transparency meets subtle milky pastel hues. Cool, translucent Morandi tones flow through the interplay of light and shadow, shaping a weightless, minimalist urban aesthetic.

SILK STORY

Dry Block

Inspired by the preciousness of silk, a marble-like texture combines smoke grey, cerulean, peach, and amethyst tones into a refined palette. A delicate, satin-like tactility in a contemporary material expression.

After Dark

Dark base, overlaid with transparent layers— modern minimalism born from stillness. Wave-like ripples flow across the acetate, light and dark blocks colliding into rich dimensional depth. Made for the city night. For the free-spirited. Refined, steady, quietly bold — a style declaration after dark.

MIDNIGHT

Transparent Monocolor

Pure transparent monicolor falls as quiet as night, giving a new interpretation to the concept of darkness. It is like a silent nocturne—steady, lingering, and carrying an undisturbed elegance.
